DR. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL PLASTER
The Rev. John L. Scudder, pastor of the First Congregational Church, Jersey City, proposes to start a dancing class in connection with his church, after the manner of the R. V. Edward L. Scudder, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, who established such a class last winter. Pastor Scudder has engaged Llewellyn Williams as a teacher, and the lessons, which will begin on October 18th, will be given in the People's Palace, attached to the tabernacle, at Henderson and York streets.
Pastor Scudder not long ago delivered a sermon, in which he took the view that dancing was an innocent recreation and should be countenanced, with certain limitations. "Dancing," he said, "is the outward expression of internal exhilaration of spirits. A child skips to school, for walking is a joy. The lame man healed by Peter danced and praised God at the same time. When David killed Goliath, there was universal dancing, and as at the wedding of Cana. I have no doubt the Lord looked upon the dancing of the young people with a favoring smile."
"I can see no sin in dancing. On the contrary, it is a graceful amusement, and properly kept within reasonable bounds. To my mind there are three limitations which should be placed on dancing. The first relates to time. Young people should observe proper hours. Dancing after midnight is unhealthy and contrary to nature. We are not bats and owls and should not turn night into day and day into night."
"The second limitation concerns the manner of dancing. A man should hold his partner at a respectable distance, using his arms to steady and guide her, and the woman should see that these instructions are adhered to. When dancing degenerates into a peripatetic puging, it becomes a disgraceful and sometimes a dangerous pastime. The third limitation is to be careful where and with whom you dance. Confine this amusement as much as possible to the home circle and personal acquaintances. Public halls and dancing pavilions, where young women dance with men they have never seen before, are pernicious in the extreme."
Pastor Scudder said yesterday that his sermon exactly represented his views on the subject. He had seen no reason to change. It was with the idea of reducing the precepts there enumerated to practice that he was about to establish dancing classes among his congregation. (New York Times, 7th.)

A LIMBLESS MILLIONAIRE.—Henry Wendhoff, of Mauch Creek, Pa., at present visiting friends at Portland Ore., is perhaps the only armless and legless millionaire known on earth. His arms were amputated below the elbow and his legs below the knees twenty-two years ago, so by this time he has succeeded in accepting his affliction most philosophically.
Mr. Wendhoff, who came here recently, attended by a valet, weighs 200 pounds, and is as jolly as if he were in possession of perfect physical health and all his limbs. His valet has been with him ten years, and says that he has yet to see Mr. Wendhoff out of temper, despite the many discomforts his physical disability entails. The afflicted man manages to walk fairly well on two automatic legs made for him in Vienna and fitted up with an ingenious mechanism that materially aids his locomotion. He also has a mechanical forearm, the hands of which enable him to hold a handkerchief, newspaper, books, etc., and to pick up articles from the table. These four artificial limbs cost $25,000 before they were brought to their present state of perfection.
Story of a Slave.
To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by E. S. Allen and E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.
YOU ARE MAKING a great mistake in not sending for a 10 cent trial size of Ely's Cream Balm. It is a specific for catarrh and cold in the head. We mail it, or the 50 cent size. Druggists all keep it. Ely Brothers, 55 Warren St., New York.
